Lush puzzles training concentration and fine motor skills.

Travel to Galapagos with this puzzle! Put together all 500 pieces and discover sea iguanas, tortoises, and many other unique animals that live there – can you name them all? Fascinating puzzle fun for the whole family!

Creative People:

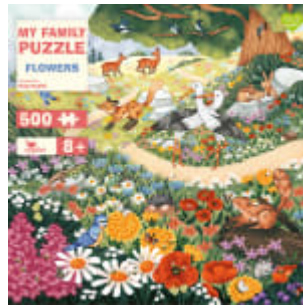

Illustrator: Jenny Palmer grew up in a city close to Nottingham and studied illustration and design at the University of Lincoln. She met her American spouse online through their shared love for video games. Today, they live together in Nottingham. She loves to bring bizarre scenes in her illustrations to life by using textured painting techniques and strong light effects, and to create detailed natural environments for cute animal characters to roam them.
