A memo game playfully visualising the important topic of emotions with modern animal motives in matching scenes.

Are you feeling mad, happy, or sad? Scared, insecure, or left out? This memo game with extra-large cards encourages children to talk about their feelings and to recognize and understand emotions in everyday situations. Who can match the most picture pairs?

Creative People:

Illustrator: Ela Smietanka is a Polish illustrator. Her drawing adventure began when she was a little girl. To make her dreams come true, she graduated from the Faculty of Graphics at the Academy of Fine Arts in Krakow, where she now lives with her husband, two sons, a cat named Zuzia and a few other cats from the neighborhood.
