Imaginative non-fiction books for the youngest readers, enabling them to discover the world in a playful way.

Something isn't right here – strange creatures and objects keep appearing in the forest and in the sea; in the mountains and in the meadow; in the savannah, in fairytales, and in primeval times; at home, at the farm, and at the construction site; on the streets and at Christmas times. Seahorses don't have four legs, do they? Aren't racoons' tails supposed to be striped, not spotted? And isn't one of the excavators looking a bit off? It's up to the little observer to find all the mistakes. There's a different puzzle to solve and something to learn about nature and everyday life on every page.

Subjects: sea, forest, farm, mountains, meadow, construction site, safari, dinosaurs, vehicles, Christmas, things at home, fairytales, service vehicles, playground, baby animals, jungle

Creative People:

Author: Nastja Holtfreter was born in Berlin, Germany, in 1977, where she still lives today with her husband and her two daughters. After studying graphic design, she worked for a media agency. There, she developed and animated various figures and illustrations for children's TV-programmes. She now works as a freelancer illustrating post cards, paper goods and book covers. Developing her own picture books is what she likes best.
