A boardbook about acceptance and friendship.

One day, Tim Tiger decides that doing everything as usual is really boring. Instead, he's going to do everything the other way round: putting on his clothes inside out, eating his bread upside down, walking to the kindergarten backwards. It's perfect timing that Tikki, the new child at the kindergarten, doesn't look like everyone else. Naturally, Tim and Tikki have to become best friends! But Tim's friend Mick gets jealous. Fortunately, the-other-way-round day offers a solution.
