A boardbook in rhyme with a twist: the traffic jam turns out to be a carrousel!

Alex has taken his sports car out for a drive. Unfortunately, he soon ends up in a traffic jam together with a tow truck, a fire engine, and ... but wait! What's a train doing in a traffic jam? And is that a rocket? And an elephant?! That can't be a normal traffic jam ...

Creative People:

Author: Norman Klaar was born in the beautiful Rhineland in-between the then capital city Bonn and the cathedral city Cologne in 1980. Today, he writes books for children and tries teaching himself how to draw.

Illustrator: Karsten Teich was born in Hannoversch Münden in 1967. He studied art at the College of Art in Kassel and has been illustrating children's books, among them the beloved Cowboy Klaus, for several publishers since 2001. He draws, writes and lives with his family in Berlin. Such a Long Car Queue is his first board book.
