Board books in rhyme with unexpected twists and funny illustrations.

At this funny race, everything goes wrong: Lena-Lotte isn't feeling well, Justus's skateboard breaks, Marie's scooter lands in the ditch, Maximilian's bike has a flat tire, Pierre's car runs out of petrol, and Tinka's racehorse doesn't want to jump the fence. But the children stick together and in the end, everyone's a winner!

Creative People:

Author: Norman Klaar was born in the beautiful Rhineland in-between the then capital city Bonn and the cathedral city Cologne in 1980. Today, he writes books for children and tries teaching himself how to draw.

Illustrator: Karsten Teich was born in Hannoversch Münden in 1967. He studied art at the College of Art in Kassel and has been illustrating children's books, among them the beloved Cowboy Klaus, for several publishers since 2001. He draws, writes and lives with his family in Berlin. Such a Long Car Queue is his first board book.
