A sweet bedtime story in witty rhymes with glow-in-the-dark stars on the cover.

The stars are twinkling in the night sky but the little marmot isn't tired yet. To help it sleep, the duck recommends a bath before going to bed, the bear honey bedtime sweets, and the sheep is certain that counting sheep will help. Soon, all of the animals have fallen asleep – all except the little marmot. Will mama marmot and a goodnight kiss be able to change that?
