The poetic story of a special friendship by bestselling author Tanja Kinkel.

The little whale is fed up with following the others. He also wants to get to know the parts of the ocean that glitter mysteriously. Happily, he swims into the bright water – but suddenly something scratches his belly and in the next second he feels so heavy that he can hardly breathe. That's when he meets the girl Maria at the beach. Maria, who is afraid of the ocean but wants to find out why others like it so much. Will Maria be able to help the whale back into the ocean and the whale Maria to overcome her fear?
