An atmospheric Christmas story about heartfelt wishes.

Christmas is just around the corner and little raccoon Puck longingly watches the birds delivering the mail for he dreams of receiving a Christmas letter of his very own. In another part of the forest, the little wren's biggest wish is to deliver a real letter for once, but the other animals think him not strong enough. Uncle Whiskers takes fulfilling their wishes into his paws, but the letter is heavy and the wren is so small. Will he be able to get the letter to Puck in time for Christmas?

Creative People:

Author: Annette Amrhein lives with her husband and two children in Schleswig-Holstein, the province between the seas. When she's not writing stories for the radio or novels for young and old, she spends time in her garden or goes for a walk in the forest looking for mushrooms. She hasn't met a bear yet but many other animals, which also play a part in her picture books.

Illustrator: Sabine Straub, born in 1966 in Fürth, grew up in Hamburg and Düsseldorf. She studied at the German College for Graphics and Design in Athens, where she lives today as a freelance illustrator.
