A cute protagonist with an important message: keep trying, don't give up – you'll succeed eventually.

"Mind the dog!" – Paule doesn't like that sign at all. The little puppy is actually anything but scary and he hasn't mastered the art of snarling either. Fortunately, Paule has good friends at his side, who help him train to become a good watch dog and protect the farm. But there's only so much goose Antonia, billygoat Konrad and cat Merle can do. When it's up to Paule, will he manage to scare the intruder away?
