Poetic stories gorgeously illustrated with an adorable protagonist and a dash of humour.

Back in the forest, Borst and his new friends, the seal Marilyn and the seagull, find an egg from which a little eagle fledgling hatches. Naturally, Borst sets out to bring it safely back home. But going all the way up to the eyrie is a difficult endeavour for a little boar piglet ...

Creative People:

Author: Yvonne Hergane, born in 1968, studied German, English, and Book Science in Augsburg and Munich. Since the mid-1990s, she has been working as an author and literary translator and was nominated for the German Children's Literature Award in 2012. Her favourites are picture books – playing with words, sounds, and rhymes is her way of making music. After several smaller and greater geographical hops, she currently lives with her family near the North Sea.

Illustrator: Wiebke Rauers, born in 1986, studied communication design with a focus on illustration in Düsseldorf. After graduating, she moved to Berlin where she worked as a character designer at an animation film studio for five years. In 2015, she set up on her own as an illustrator. Since then she has been working mainly on books, magazines and character designs.
