An adorable story in rhymes about finding like-minded friends without having to change oneself.

Owl Elli's life would be perfect – if only she had friends to play with! It can't be so hard to find some, can it? The next morning, she immediately sets out to go looking for them. And there are so many potential friends in the meadow, at the beach, and in the swamp. There's just one tiny problem: every time it gets exciting, the little owl falls asleep because she was up all night. Will she ever find a friend that's just like her?

Creative People:

Author: Georg Vollmer, born in 1974, lives with his family in beautiful Franconia. The books he usually deals with professionally are about mathematic formulas and equations. To avoid monotony, he wrote Owl Elli Wishes for Friends, his first children's book – only at night, of course, just like it should be for real owls.

Illustrator: Pina Gertenbach, born in Karlsruhe, studied communication design at the University of Applied Sciences Mannheim. She has been working as a freelance illustrator and graphic designer for publishers and agencies ever since. She lives and works in Berlin.
