A delightful picture book with an important message: you are great the way you are!

The giraffe Miss Nosy is truly extraordinarily nosy! Thanks to her long neck, she manages to poke her nose into everyone's business. And no matter how often the other animals tell her off, she just can't help herself, which doesn't make her any friends. But when little Munchkin disappears, it is Miss Nosy with her long neck and unabashed nosiness that saves the day. The other animals realise that sometimes being nosy does have its merits – and suddenly Miss Nosy has a lot of new friends!

Creative People:

Author: Judith Allert lives with her husband, dogs, cats, horses, chickens, and mangalitsa pigs on a small farm in Upper Franconia. This unusual extended family constantly provides material for new stories since boredom is a foreign concept. Naturally, Miss Nosy wanted to have a look around the author's home, too. She was allowed to, obviously.

Illustrator: Karolina Benz moved from Munich to Hamburg to study illustration at the University of Applied Sciences. Nowadays, she lives and works with her boyfriend in an attic flat amidst tubes of paint and huge stacks of books in the middle of Vienna. Exactly the right place for a turtle the size of a bun that aims high.
