First information on agriculture and farm machines and their tasks with likeable characters highlighting that everyone has their own strengths and talents.

Every day, young tractor Leonard diligently helps the Janson family with the work on their farm. When his best friends, harvester Harry and dairy van Dan, drop by and tell him exciting stories of their lives away from the farmyard, Leonard yearns to leave behind his uneventful days and sets out on his own adventure. On his way, he meets many different farm machines and gives their tasks a try – with mixed results. Slowly, homesickness creeps in. Maybe his life at the Janson farm wasn't so bad after all ...

Creative People:

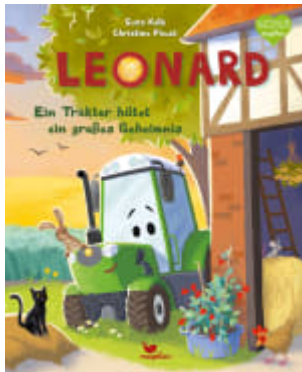

Author: Ever since she was a child, Suza Kolb has made up stories about fierce and cheeky characters – on four or just two legs. For a long time, writing had only been a hobby for the Rhinelander who now lives in Bavaria. Nowadays, the weird adventures of her heroes are becoming actual books. She mostly finds inspiration in her immediate surroundings.

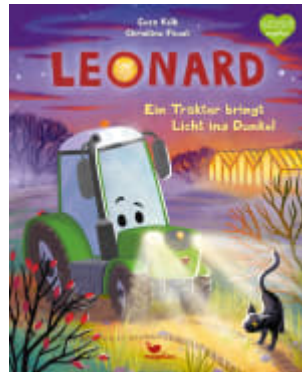

Illustrator: Christine Faust studied toy and teaching aids design and should therefore design toys. However, she loves drawing even more, which is why she illustrates children's books and games and also works in the animation industry for film and television. Christine Faust lives in Magdeburg where she likes to send her children on Easter egg hunts.
