First information on agriculture, farm machines, and crops with likeable characters highlighting that everyone has their own strengths and talents.

Every day, young tractor Leonard diligently helps at the Janson farm, but he yearns to leave his uneventful days behind. One day, he sets out on his own adventure and tries his wheels at other farming methods – with mixed results. Maybe his previous tasks weren't so bad after all ... When Leonard finds out that most farmers grow the same crops, Leonard sets out to find more uncommon types. In order to convince his farmer, he secretly cultivates a field. Can he keep the secret until the crops are ready for harvest?

Creative People:

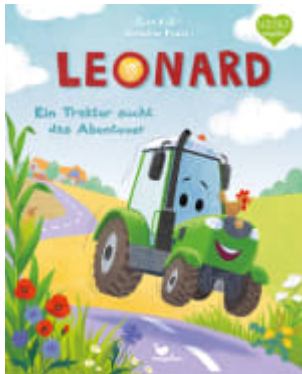

Author: Ever since she was a child, Suza Kolb has made up stories about fierce and cheeky characters – on four or just two legs. For a long time, writing had only been a hobby for the Rhinelander who now lives in Bavaria. Nowadays, the weird adventures of her heroes are becoming actual books. She mostly finds inspiration in her immediate surroundings.

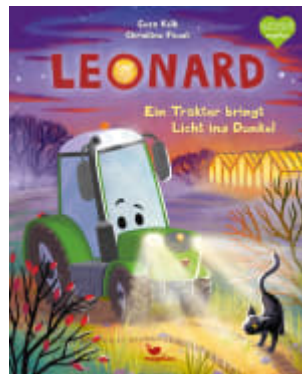

Illustrator: Christine Faust studied toy and teaching aids design and should therefore design toys. However, she loves drawing even more, which is why she illustrates children's books and games and also works in the animation industry for film and television. Christine Faust lives in Magdeburg where she likes to send her children on Easter egg hunts.
