First information on agriculture, farm machines, and crops with likeable characters highlighting that everyone has their own strengths and talents.

Tractor Leonard is diligently sowing the fields, along with the field robots, when it starts drizzling. What begins as a harmless spring rain turns into a severe thunderstorm. Soon the rivers are flowing over, trees are blocking the streets and basements are underwater. Good thing that Leonard is there to help!

Creative People:

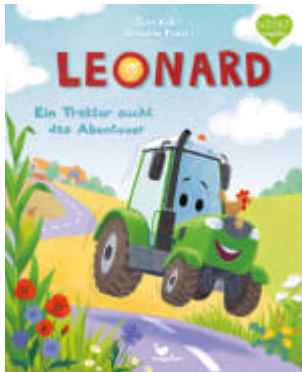

Author: Ever since she was a child, Suza Kolb has made up stories about fierce and cheeky characters – on four or just two legs. For a long time, writing had only been a hobby for the Rhinelander who now lives in Bavaria. Nowadays, the weird adventures of her heroes are becoming actual books. She mostly finds inspiration in her immediate surroundings.

Illustrator: Christine Faust studied toy and teaching aids design and should therefore design toys. However, she loves drawing even more, which is why she illustrates children's books and games and also works in the animation industry for film and television. Christine Faust lives in Magdeburg where she likes to send her children on Easter egg hunts. Christine Faust studied toy and teaching aids design in Halle/Saale. After a few years in animation and the birth of her second child, she now mainly illustrates children's books and games. She lives in Magdeburg together with her blended family.
