This colourful picture book takes the reader on a wonderful adventure through the world of colours and shows that one's best just the way one is.

Mr Lion is discontent. Very much so, in fact. Next to the colourful animals of the jungle, he doesn't feel special at all with his yellow-brown coat. In his eyes, yellow and brown just aren't the right colours for the king of the animals. It's about time for a change! But which colour would suit him?
