A colourful picture book showing that everyone is good at something – sometimes it just takes a little time to discover what it is.

Each of Koala's best friends has a special talent: Kangaroo is incredibly strong, Platypus the quickest swimmer, Wombat a great dancer, and Tarkawara builds the highest sandcastles. Only Koala doesn't have anything they're especially good at.

One day, the friends find a weird object made of paper dotted with marks – a book! Even though they can't read, Koala boasts of knowing what stories these letters hold and starts spinning the most wonderful tales. The friends are in awe – so there is something Koala is especially good at after all!

Creative People:

Author & Illustrator: Nastja Holtfreter was born in Berlin, Germany, in 1977, where she still lives today with her husband and her two daughters. After studying graphic design, she worked for a media agency. There, she developed and animated various figures and illustrations for children's TV-programmes. She now works as a freelancer illustrating post cards, paper goods and book covers. Developing her own picture books is what she likes best.
