An extraordinary Advent adventure with a dash of Christmas magic balancing tradition and modernity.

For Emil, Advent season is the most beautiful time of the year. Unfortunately, his parents are so busy that not even a teensy tiny bit of Christmas spirit sets in – until Emil is gifted a magical gingerbread house that transports him and his best friend Etta right into the bakery of Ginny the Gingerbread Fairy. And Ginny is in big trouble and desperate need of help: the most important ingredient, the one responsible for spreading the Christmas spirit, is missing! Together, Ginny, Emil, and Etta embark on a turbulent mission to save not only the gingerbread production but Christmas as well.

Creative People:

Author: Teresa Hochmuth, born in Würzburg in 1982, loves old things and new stories. Raised in the Franconian countryside, she moved to California to study screen writing thanks to a Fulbright scholarship. Today, she lives in Munich with her family, where she writes children's and young adult books as well as texts for television. The best ideas come to her while riding her bike or baking cookies.

Illustrator: Julia Christians, born in 1984, is a real primary rock of the Harz Mountains. She studied communication design at the HBK Braunschweig and graduated in 2011; now she works as a free-lance illustrator. She lives with her husband, her children, and the permanent question if three dogs are enough.
