Christmas adventures in 24 chapters full of magic balancing tradition and modernity.

Finally, it's Advent season! Emil and Etta can once again use the magical gingerbread house to head straight for Lapland. After all, they want to help Ginny the Gingerbread Fairy to spread lots of Christmas spirit for the holidays. However, the three are faced with a dire problem when elk Ulfrik injures his ankle. How are they supposed to distribute umpteen magic gingerbread cookies without a delivery elk? Is Christmas cancelled?

Creative People:

Author: Teresa Hochmuth, born in Würzburg in 1982, loves old things and new stories. Raised in the Franconian countryside, she moved to California to study screen writing thanks to a Fulbright scholarship. Today, she lives in Munich with her family, where she writes children's and young adult books as well as texts for television. The best ideas come to her while riding her bike or baking cookies.

Illustrator: Julia Christians, born in 1984, is a real primary rock of the Harz Mountains. She studied communication design at the HBK Braunschweig and graduated in 2011; now she works as a free-lance illustrator. She lives with her husband, her children, and the permanent question if three dogs are enough.
