Animal adventures highlighting donkeys and their strengths from the bestselling author of The Oat Crew series.

Young donkey Ferdinand has a single most fervent wish: to be a real horse. If it were just that simple! Fortunately, Ferdinand can count on the support of his friends. The girl Emmi takes him to the riding lessons at the pony farm (Ferdinand never thought walking could be so tricky), billygoat Paule offers to be a substitute rider (and finds himself more than once on the ground) and pony girl Cloud gives him neighing lessons. Together, they stumble from one donkeylicious adventure to the next …
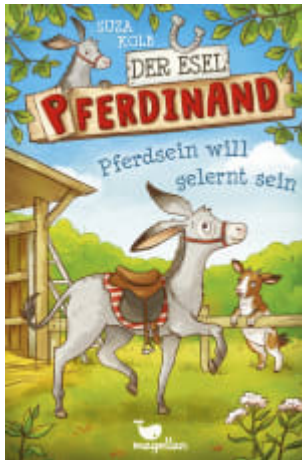

Creative People:

Author: Ever since she was a child, Suza Kolb has made up stories about fierce and cheeky characters – on four or just two legs. For a long time, writing had only been a hobby for the Rhinelander who now lives in Bavaria. Nowadays, the weird adventures of her heroes are becoming actual books. She mostly finds inspiration in her immediate surroundings.

Illustrator: Carola Sieverding was born in the Oldenburger Münsterland in 1989. She now lives in Münster with her boyfriend and her small dog. After graduating with a degree in design, she has been working as a freelance illustrator. She loves the sea, travelling and hiking – and of course creating extraordinary children's books.
