A tomcat's adventurous stories – a must read for all cat lovers!

Aristotle is a very handsome tomcat in his prime – according to himself. And Anna and her family think that, too. At least that's what Aristotle thought until he finds out that Anna wants a dog for her birthday. A dog?!? Which sensible eight-year-old girl wants a yappy little dog? Aristotle is adamant: that's not going to happen as long as he is the cat of the house! All he needs to do is showing Anna what she's got in him – by running away to prove his point. Too bad that life as a street cat is not really how Aristotle had expected ...
