Horses, mystery and history – a multilayered series in four volumes following two girls set out to solving the mystery of a ghost stallion, slowly uncovering the story of star-crossed lovers during WW2.

Jola's life is turned upside down when she and her father move back from New Zealand to Germany and end up on idyllic Gorse Farm. As much as she wants a regular life, fitting back in proves to be more challenging than she anticipated, especially since her hosts' daughter Katie doesn't make her feel welcome. Although Jola hasn't cared two figs about horses so far, the equestrian farm soon turns out to be full of surprises that keep her on her toes. Not only does a gang of saddle thieves strike terror in the region, on her first night, a mysterious white stallion appears in the stables. Why does no one seem to miss him? Jola is fascinated and sets out to solve the mystery behind his appearance, finding an unlikely ally in Katie …
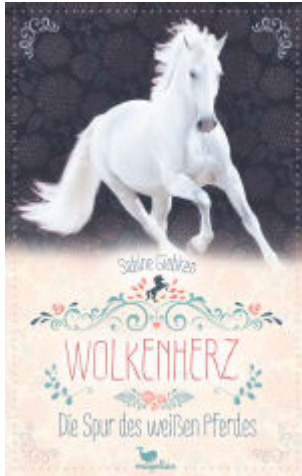

Creative People:

Author: Sabine Giebken, born in 1979 in Munich, swapped ballet for riding lessons at the age of eight and henceforth dreamt of a horse of her own. When she was a child, she already wrote her first stories into her exercise books, which later became her first horse novels. After a degree in business administration and other occupational detours, she decided to turn her hobby into her profession. She lives in Bavaria and has two wild children, an affectionate dog, and a pretty confident Icelandic mare.
