A magical adventure series full of beautiful butterflies, family mysteries, and stunning international settings.

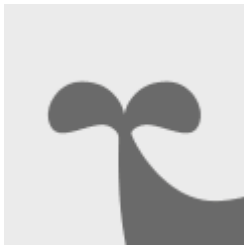

Stella and her best friend Victor are visiting the guilds in Rome. Here, the seemingly impossible has become reality: The butterfly and the moth guild not only live together peacefully, they even work together to produce a valuable healing oil with the help of the oleander hawk-moths. Stella, Victor, and Luca from the moth guild dive right into the electrifying life of the eternal city. But Stella is keeping a secret. Julie of all people, who has proven herself dangerous, wants to meet her there. Does she really know something about Stella's father? Or does she just want to get a hold of Stella's map? At the same time, a warning appears on the map showing that butterflies are in danger and shortly after, the guild members fall mysteriously ill. When the events take a turn for the worse, Stella finds herself in grave danger ...

Creative People:

Author: Ruth Rahlff, born in Lüneburg, tried herself as a sales talent in her uncle's bookshop at an early age. Later on, she apprenticed in publishing, worked in a very big and a very small publishing house as an editor, and has been working as a freelance author since 2004. When she's not reading, travelling, eating ice cream, or romping about with her dog, she makes up stories for children and young adults.

Illustrator: Isabelle Hirtz, raised in Munich, spent her younger years mostly with going to the cinema and collecting film posters. This love, a proclivity for fantasy books, and a degree in communication design in 2007, lead her on detours to Hamburg. She has been designing covers and illustrations for children's and young adult books as well as literary, fantasy, and science fiction books ever since.
