Unusual and compelling: a portrait of a strong, vulnerable girl.

Luzie stumbles upon a well-kept secret: contrary to what her mother has always said, her father did not die in a climbing accident. What reason can her mother have for lying to her? And what is behind the panic attacks that overwhelm Luzie whenever she tries to remember her childhood? Her meeting with Puma, the first boy with whom she feels safe, gives Luzie the clue she needs to solve the mystery of her past.

Creative People:

Author: Before she started writing novels for young adults, Katrin Zipse's first love was the spoken word: She has worked for several radio stations for more than twenty years. In her spare time, she likes to travel France with her family and Berta, their dog.
