The ingenious portrait of a friendship – astute, authentic, and atmospheric.

Andi and Ferdi are totally ordinary guys. No heroes, nothing special at all. In front of them lies a summer just like any other – or so they thought. But then Mitch is suddenly, unexpectedly back. Mitch, who once was their friend. Who screwed up big time. Who ended up in prison when Andi and Ferdi had to testify against him. Mitch is out for payback demanding their help in his criminal activities. That's really bad timing because Andi just decided to help save his crush Lea from her super conservative parents. So Andi, Ferdi, and Lea devise a plan: running away to a cabin in the woods. They just made one mistake: not thinking it through. And now reality is catching up on them ...
