An enthralling series full of romance, mystery, and wild horses.

Valerie has decided to stay in England for the new school year. She could be happy with Ben, if it weren't for the looming threat that his father Gordon has told them about: The Aldringhams seem to be cursed – and the curse affects not only horses but people as well.

With the help of their friends, Valerie and Ben investigate the old stories. The deeper they delve into the mysteries of the past, the more clues they find that Gordon may have been telling the truth. And time is running out: while they are looking for a way to break the curse, more and more inexplicable things happen to the free-living herd. Suddenly, it's not just the lives of the horses that are at stake ...
