An enthralling series full of romance, mystery, and wild horses.

Valerie is deeply shaken. How could Ben just leave her? Since he went to boarding school without a word, she has taken care of the ponies all by herself – being pushed to her limits way too often. Threatening things are happening in the mountains surrounding Rydal Hill, as if the Aldringhams' curse is getting stronger.

Despite her broken heart, Val refuses to leave the herd to its fate. Bit by bit, the pieces of the past come together and Val makes an unbelievable discovery: Has the curse always been about more than just the destiny of the Aldringhams? How could they fail to see that the ponies are the key to everything?

In a race against time, Val tries to find the descendants of Edith's herd. However, she needs Ben's help for that. Is their love strong enough to prevent the disaster that threatens the whole town?
