A captivating love story interlaced with family mysteries set against the thrilling world of ice hockey.

Sofie's whole life revolves around achieving her ultimate goal: getting a coveted spot on the Ice Trolls ice hockey team. Being the only girl on the ice, she has to work extra hard to prove herself – and she's damn good at what she does! But suddenly, the mysterious Dawn appears and it's no longer just her and her team mates vying for that spot. Dawn, who is easily outplaying them all and is doing things to Sofie's heart that make her focus waver. Will he derail her shot at achieving what she's worked so hard for? And what's behind the weird messages that warn her to stay away from him? Who is he – and more importantly: what game is he playing?

Creative People:

Author: Sabine Giebken, born in 1979 in Munich, swapped ballet for riding lessons at the age of eight and henceforth dreamt of a horse of her own. When she was a child, she already wrote her first stories into her exercise books, which later became her first horse novels. After a degree in business administration and other occupational detours, she decided to turn her hobby into her profession. She lives in Bavaria and has two wild children, an affectionate dog, and a pretty confident Icelandic mare.
