Breathtaking and beautifully written – a love story against the backdrop of a fatal family secret.

When eighteen-year-old Lou joins a group of competitive freedivers at the coast of Elba, she is instantly intrigued by Angel and his passion for diving. Lou is thrilled when Angel singles her out as his training partner for a world record attempt. While she slowly realises that there is more that he is looking for in the ocean than the athletic challenge, Angel's past catches up with him and Lou has to decide if she will follow him even deeper into the dark ...

Creative People:

Author: Sabine Giebken, born in 1979 in Munich, swapped ballet for riding lessons at the age of eight and henceforth dreamt of a horse of her own. When she was a child, she already wrote her first stories into her exercise books, which later became her first horse novels. After a degree in business administration and other occupational detours, she decided to turn her hobby into her profession. She lives in Bavaria and has two wild children, an affectionate dog, and a pretty confident Icelandic mare.
