Further information here

In the eucalyptus forests of Australia, there live the little koala and its mother. After leaving the safety of the pouch, there's always so much to see and to learn: where to find the tastiest eucalyptus leaves, how to climb through the tall treetops, and which animals to better stay away from. The little koala embarks on an exciting journey.

Creative People:

Author: Kristina Scharmacher-Schreiber studied German in Münster and Bergamo and afterwards worked for big opera houses for many years. Since 2016, she has been working as an author and translator and has published a number of children's books. For her nonfiction works, she has received a number of awards. When she's not working on a new book, she enjoys spending her time at her favourite place, a small island amidst the rough North Sea.

Illustrator: Christine Faust studied toy and teaching aids design and should therefore design toys. However, she loves drawing even more, which is why she illustrates children's books and games and also works in the animation industry for film and television. Christine Faust lives in Magdeburg where she likes to send her children on Easter egg hunts.
